Social Side of Life

Now that the holidays are over we can all settle into our usual grooves—and pay the bills. That seems to be the natural sequence at this time of the year, and modifies to a great extent the joys of the season. The usual New Year's resolutions have been made—only to be broken. That goes without saying, but does not in the least interfere with the pleasure of making them. The holidays have been crowded with pleasure. Dinners, teas, parties, balls, and bathing parties have followed each other in quick succession, and the week has certainly been a strenuous one. Everybody, however, has had a good time, and that's what counts, after all.

A most enjoyable pot supper was given last Tuesday evening by the Prince and Princess Kawanakoa in honor of the Princess' birthday. In the morning the Ellis brothers' glee club sang the song which was presented in the evening to the Princess. The words are by Mrs. Montano and the music by Kalani Peters. The copy presented is brilliantly illuminated and beneath the song are the words of dedication as follows:

DEDICATED

PRINCESS AIDAH, WAHKA, HULIA KAWANAKOA, on the anniversary of her birthday, January first, 1905. With the most sincere wishes for very many happy returns of the day by her most obedient servants, the

ELLIS BROS. GLEE CLUB.

The long table was set on the lawn and literally buried in flowers, the offerings of the Princess' friends. Violets and ferns in baskets tied with green ribbons, roses of all colors, carnations and lilies and the yellow cecropias made a most attractive setting for the delicacies of the luncheon. After the supper the guests amused themselves by music and conversation. The Ellis brothers' glee club was in attendance throughout the supper.

The presents given to the Princess in honor of her natal day were many and varied. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering, Mrs. Elizabeth French, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Miss A. G. Hawes, Mrs. Cunha, Miss Rose Cunha, Miss Irene Dickson, Miss Cummings, Major and Mrs. Purdy, Mrs. Mary Widdifield, Mrs. Nawahi, Bishop Libert, Father Valentine, Father Stephen, Mr. F. H. Humphris, Mr. Walter Macfarlane, Dr. Murray, Mr. "Sonny" Cunha, Mr. Byron Baird, Mr. Macfarlane.

A popular San Francisco paper has the following about Addison Mizner, so well known in Honolulu. He, as well as his sister, Mrs. Chase, spent some time here about two years ago. "Addie" made both friends and enemies during his visit, for he has a vivid tongue, to say the least, and did not always use it with discretion. Addison Mizner is here from New York for a very few days. He will return to the East, and society has been officially served with the sad notice that this city will see him no more. Alas! alas! Addison is thoroughly weary of the suburban aspect of our village after a few months in New York, and swears by the metropolis. He will open a studio there, and enter on a serious career of work and study. He made a coup by getting hold of some old brocade in Central America, and saw visions of himself as a man of fortune with a career. There is undoubtedly a large field in New York for any one with Addie's knowledge of objects d'art, and he is going to take advantage of it while yet young. He has wearied of being the wit of every social function, and "the life of the party" and "such good fun." He is tired of people who laugh if he says "Good morning!" because Addie is so funny, you know, and there must be a joke somewhere. He is going to be a real worker, and paint china, miniatures, sell tapestries and brocade, and perhaps do a little writing, for he collaborated with Ethel Mumford and some others in "The Cynde's Calendar." No San Francisco can has a more varied or extensive lot of acquaintances in New York than Mr. Mizner, and he is tremendously popular there. One of the first things the New Yorker will ask a Californian is, "Do you know Addie?" I presume that he will not only be a great favorite in the literary and artistic world, but in society as well, for he has much more going with him than Harry Lehr or any of those men who pose as the humorists of the Four Hundred. He and Ethel Hager always used to plan original stunts and costumes for fancy dress balls. Mr. Mizner has about half a dozen big brothers left here to keep society going. They are all extremely witty. Lanning Mizner keeps the Pacific Union Club from falling asleep, and no house party is complete without him. The proprietor of all the Mizners was Minister to Guatemala. The only member of the family who has a fortune is Mrs. Horace Chase, whose husband is a capitalist. She has the wit of the Mizners, and one can always tell by the ripples of laughter where Minnie Chase is at any gathering.

Mrs. F. E. King of Cottage Grove was the recipient of a surprise party on Friday evening. The guests were entertained by cards, and during the evening delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Bittinger, Mr. and Mrs. Strauss, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Miss Abbie Smith and Mr. Webster. The party was given in order to introduce Mr. Morgan to the company.

At the Moana Hotel on Sunday evening a charming dinner was given by Mr. John H. Bliss, Miss Nannie Wilson acted as hostess, and that fact alone was enough to make the dinner brilliant, and this one was an unusually gay affair. The table, set for twelve, was artistically decorated with red carnations and maidenhair ferns, and the guests were Miss Winston, Mrs. Walbridge, Captain and Mrs. Niblack, Mrs. F. M. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Hoyt, Miss Jessie Kaufman, ex-Governor Cleghorn, Mr. Hartman and Mr. Wolfe, a cousin of Mrs. Hays.

The following appeared in a San Francisco paper of recent date and will be of interest, for Mrs. Cook was a guest of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel not long since and she was entertained also extensively while here. She is quite extensively while here. She is also a sister of Mrs. Henry Highton of this city, who is now visiting friends and relatives in New York and San Francisco.

It is now Madame de Briel of Paris instead of Mrs. Cook of Honolulu, for the marriage of Mrs. Cook took place in New York a month ago, and the bride and groom are now in Paris, and will make their home there. The wedding was the culmination of a romance that began several years since in Paris, when Mrs. Cook and Mr. de Briel fell in love, but separated after a lover's quarrel. Mrs. Cook spent a year ago left America with her son Clifford for a long trip around the world. While in Paris she was at a large tea, and she was startled when she saw a face in a crowd that looked familiar. She could not believe her eyes that it was possible that she was looking at an old lover. He stared at her a second time, and then sprang forward to greet her. In a few days they were shaking hands in the most enthusiastic French fashion. They forgot the years that they had grown old, and only remembered that they were in love with each other. Mrs. Cook remained in Paris for a few days, and in that time it was arranged that they were to be married within the year. Mrs. Cook decided not to give up her trip around the world, and left with her son to go by way of the Mediterranean to the Orient. She returned to San Francisco and brought back from China many beautiful things, and arranged all her affairs to leave the city forever. Mrs. Postley, her daughter, was in New York for the wedding, and will come back here this winter. Mrs. Cook is one of a family of beautiful sisters, the Scoffys, and her father was a prominent pioneer in this State. Mrs. Henry Highton is another sister, and Mrs. Postley comes honestly by the lovelessness that has caused her to be declared one of the most beautiful women in America. The Scoffys are of Greek blood.

"It is announced that the wedding of Miss Gertrude Dutton and Joseph Howell will be celebrated on Wednesday, January 11th, at Trinity Church, at 8:30 in the evening, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Dutton, 2507 Pacific avenue. There will be a large bridal party, and it will be one of the most attractive weddings of the winter. Miss Mollie Dutton, the bride's sister, will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids are to be Miss Edna Middleton, Miss Maylin Pease, Miss Pearl Landers and Miss Belle Harnes. Thomas Harbottle will be the best man, and Edward M. Greenway, Harry Dutton, Enrique Gran and Lindsay Scrutton the ushers. There is a possibility that the wedding journey will consist of a trip abroad for several months, but the secret of just what destination is being kept with great care."

Miss Dutton is having an exquisite trousseau made, and as she is a beautiful girl everything is sure to be becoming. Miss Dutton is a cousin of Mrs. Harry Macfarlane.

A most agreeable trip was enjoyed in the tropic through the kindness of Captain and Mrs. Niblack on Monday, who gave several friends an outing to Pearl Harbor and a picnic lunch. The day was perfect and the trip was thoroughly pleasant. Several of the guests had never been to Pearl Harbor before and were loud in their expressions of admiration for the beautiful locks. The wedding of Miss Emily Halse and Col. John McClellan, U.S.A., occurred at the residence of the bride on Mahiki street on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William M. Kincaid of Central Union Church. Although the wedding was a very quiet one, only relatives and intimate friends being present, the uniforms of the groom and military guests made a brilliant showing. The maid-of-honor was Miss Bertha Young, and she looked very pretty in a blue chiffon trimmed with point applique. The groom was attended by Lieut. Farrar, U.S.A., and the bride was given into the keeping of the groom by her brother, Mr. Frank Halsead. The Hat and the bride and groom stood beneath a canopy of malle, and ropes of red carnations were attached to the bow window. A basket of maidenhair ferns and beautiful white flowers were suspended from the canopy. In the room where the presents were displayed were decorations at pink
